

LAMARTY®

Five-Layer
Solid Wood Panel

PRODUCT INTRODUCTION

Five-Layer Solid Wood Panel

The collection features dozens of premium solid wood veneer options, including American black walnut, red oak, white oak, cherry, maple; European ash, Burmese teak, Japanese hinoki, African cherry, and more.

With a stable five-layer structure, strong adhesive bonding, and excellent resistance to warping and deformation, this series offers outstanding performance and promising market potential.

The product features a five-layer structure with a carbonized Finnish spruce core, a eucalyptus balancing layer, and a 2.6–3mm solid wood veneer surface. The core board undergoes multiple processes such as edge-gluing and conditioning. Combined with the eucalyptus layer, it forms a dual stability system.

Compared to traditional three-layer solid wood panels made from a single wood species, this five-layer construction offers superior stability and significantly reduces the risk of deformation.
